

God is love

A mime using heart shapes.

Person gives their heart to 3 others. One chucks it on the ground and stomps on it. Another blows their nose in it and throws it away. Another dismisses it / flicks away the offered heart.

Person looks very sad.

Another person comes along and gives their heart to the first person. First person happily responds and gives them their heart. The second person looks at the first person's heart and decides they don't like it. They give it back and take back their own heart.

Person looks very discouraged / upset.

Another person comes along. First person quickly hides their heart.

Another person comes along and holds out their heart to the first person. First person angrily swats it away. Person goes away sad.

Jesus comes along (Lot bigger heart with cross on it). He offers his heart to first person. First person angrily pushes it away. Jesus offers again. First person looks at heart but very hesitant. Jesus offers again. First person tentatively receives, and holds heart to self in newly developing wonder. First person then tentatively gives their heart over to Jesus. Jesus looks at the heart. First person looks worried. In fear offers to give Jesus back his heart. Jesus shakes his head with big smile and pushes his heart back against first person's chest. Jesus looks again at heart of first person with big smile, looks at first person with big smile and holds their heart close to his chest.
