

He's Mine

3 characters: God (Stephen), Geoff, and Satan (William).

God: Satan, this is my servant Geoff, with whom I am well pleased.

S: Is that so?... I seem to remember that your servant Geoff has given in to my temptations on plenty of occasions.

God: Yes, that's true.

S: Is it not also true that your servant still holds onto lies that I have told him? Is it not also true that he still chases after false gods, still uses false refuges, still operates with rebellion against you in his flesh?

God: Yes, that's true.

S: And is it not also true that your servant Geoff has doubted you along the way, lost confidence in you at times, gotten wobbly in his faith, even gotten angry with you, shaken his fist at you at how you have treated him, and, even if unknowingly, turned to me for comfort and help in his time of need?

G: Yes, that's true.

S: So then, God, how can you claim you are well pleased with him? How can you claim he is your servant, exclusively? Is he not my servant too, even as you say he is your servant? Do we not in fact share possession of Geoff? (Here Satan has come close to Geoff and is reaching out to touch him)

God: No Satan, Geoff is mine and mine alone. You know very well that I have taken Geoff off of you. My Spirit sits on the throne in his heart. The blood of my Son has cleansed him from all his sin. I have made him a new creation, and by my Spirit I will continue to set him free from his sinful flesh and from your demonic activity, and I will bring him into my eternal kingdom as a Son fully cleansed from all your evil.

You continue to attack my people, and you will have your little victories, but your time is short.

(Satan blocks his ears).

S: Yes, but I'm not finished .. just .. yet. (Satan walks away but then stands facing them with arms folded)

(God talks to Geoff).

God: Don't let go of me Geoff. Don't give up on me. No matter what. Keep pressing in. I will never leave you or forsake you. I am yours and you are mine. The good I began in you I will bring to completion. Your place is with me for eternity, whole and set free from all the attacks and entanglements of the evil one.
