

Centuries ago the western world fought back against invading Muslim armies. Over a period of 781yrs (through to 1492 AD) Spain was gradually reconquered and Islam driven out. In 1529 & 1683 Ottoman Muslim armies pushed into Europe as far as Vienna, Austria, seeking to establish an Islamic empire over the West, but they were defeated and had to retreat.

Back then, the West seemed to have had some spiritual and moral muscle. The Christian west said 'no' to Islamic invasion, and pushed back militarily, ultimately establishing a strength that the Islamic world, with ever increasing weakness at the time, could not prevail against.

Fast forward to today's world. What Islam could not do through military action, it now seems to be achieving through endless immigration. Western European countries have increasing numbers of Muslim citizens. A number of political and social commentators are raising the alarm – 'Islam is a threat to our way of life!' 'Islam does not respect our values.' 'Islam threatens to take away our freedoms and rights!' 'Islam does not seek to integrate, but to dominate and subjugate!'

If this is true; if Islam is such a threat to the Western world, how did the West come to be letting in so many Muslim migrants, and be dealing with them in such a 'kowtowing' manner? Why has the threat not been seen and warded off?

It is the contention of this brochure that the Islamic threat in the West, is a direct reflection of the ever growing spiritual and moral decay in western societies. Whereas the '10 commandments' in the Christian and Jewish Bible were at one time of foundational importance, they have now been largely discarded in favour of a mindset that is hostile to Christian faith and teaching, seeing it as an evil that needs to be expunged by a more 'enlightened' and 'progressive' people.

This rejection however of Christian faith and teaching, far from creating a thriving society has only seen the West become substantially 'stupid', 'immoral', and 'weak', and vulnerable to takeover.

One of the most telling pointers to this reality is revealed in the slogan: "Queers for Palestine". Such a statement as this is amazingly stupid. Islamic theology is anti-LGBT. Videos and reports reveal that LGBT people have been thrown to their deaths off roofs by Muslims in Gaza. And yet, the progressive 'woke' West aligns itself with Islam, resulting in what is called the 'red – green alliance'. Toxic femininity aligning with toxic masculinity, against a common foe – 'western white patriarchal colonialism'.

The outcome of this alliance will not be favourable for the red (woke) side. How can it be, given it is fundamentally stupid, immoral and weak!? Understandably, woke progressives are viewed by the Islam (green) side of the alliance as 'useful idiots'. At this point in time Islam will happily make use of woke terminology such as 'intersectionality', & 'decolonization'. Muslims will join with woke progressives in their protest marches. Along with the red side they too will frame their violence as (legitimate) 'resistance'. In the end though, if Islam does come to gain substantial power in the west, it will turn against their alliance partner because Islam's value and belief system is diametrically opposed to all that the red side stands for.

In the 1979 Iran revolution, Marxists, socialists, communists, and secular nationalists, all aligned themselves with Khomeini's Islamists against their common foe – The Shah & 'western imperialism'. With the support of the 'reds', the 'greens' (Islam) came into power. What do you think happened next? Once in power the Islamists 'purged' their former red allies. Thousands were killed, imprisoned, or exiled.

Then in 1988, another purge was perpetrated by the green Islamic side. Khomeini issued a religious decree ordering all political prisoners to be executed. Between July and September 1988, in what became known as the 'bloody red summer', an estimated 3000-5000 political prisoners were put to death in secret mass executions. Human rights literature called what was done a 'crime against humanity'.

So why can't the red 'woke' side see the danger of the green Islamic side?

As already indicated this brochure contends that the reason lies in the Western rejection of Christian faith and teaching. Societal strength and human flourishing come when people 'love God and love their neighbour' as per the Bible's ten commandments.

The rise of 'Modernism' in the West first of all suggested that science was sufficient to explain reality. 'Post Modernism' then rejected any belief that absolute, objective, eternal truth existed to inform and direct human living. Having rejected God, people took on being their own 'God'. Even as they came to view truth as relative, such that 'you have your truth, and I have mine', still this meant adopting a naïve, blind and foolish belief that they were sufficient in themselves, via their rational and emotional powers, to adjudicate re what was good and right and true. Those who took on woke ideology determined (using these powers) that the Christian God and Christian teaching were evil expressions of 'Western white male patriarchal oppressive colonial power' that had brought pain and misery on everyone who was not part of the oppressive system, namely women, non-white ethnicities, 3rd world and previously colonized countries, LGBT people, transgender people, and so on. It was determined that these were the victimized and marginalized people, and that if the world was to flourish then these victimized people needed to be helped to cast off the oppression, so that they could be free to be who they are. This has only led however to a society where the wishes and wants of the 'marginalized' are affirmed as good, even if what they want goes against God's commandments for the world. Human feelings and wants reign supreme without much thought to whether what someone feels is true, and whether what they want is actually good for them. The result is a society that has only become more indulgent, permissive, selfish and childish. Childish tantrums expressed in rioting, attacks on authority, and destruction of property, are affirmed within woke circles as legitimate in the fight against oppression. All manner of sexual behaviour that was once seen as indecent and immoral, is affirmed as good if that's what you want! While abortions continue to occur in the millions, applauded as an expression of 'my body, my choice', the west fails to reproduce at levels needed for population maintenance. Surely that truth alone reflects a society in decline!! The West is dying!

All the while the Islamic world looks upon the West with contempt at what the West is doing to itself.

It needs to be said that the woke movement is not all bad. It has rightly drawn attention to and sought to deal with systems of injustice and oppression, which have always plagued human society. But as is so typical of human behaviour, the woke movement has, as the saying goes, ended up 'throwing the baby out with the bathwater'.

In reality we human beings are simply not as smart or as good as we think we are. As we deal with one evil, we are prone to bringing other evils into view. Only God is truly good and truly wise, which means we are ever in need of his goodness and wisdom to inform us and move us in the direction of the good. In his love God the Father sent God the Son to die for us so that we can be forgiven of our evil, and come back under his protection and guidance. God invites us to come to him in faith and trust, as he wants to be our Good Shepherd and bring us life in its fullness.

Even when we do come to God, we still have to enter into a lifetime of battling with our 'sinful nature' that thinks it knows best, but is in reality selfish, self-indulgent, greedy and destructive. Knowing this, it is always right that we approach life carefully and humbly, understanding that our 'wants' and 'feelings' and 'wisdom' may not be of God, and may not be good for us and society.

The Western world has never been without its faults, but its development, success and wealth did not just come about through oppression, but also through a foundation of 'love God, and love your neighbour'. In the ancient world where people believed that the capricious activity of gods determined the functioning of the world, the Christian faith asserted there was a Creator God and an orderly created world. This became the basis of scientific endeavour, and technological advance. Into a world that denied any universality of human rights, the Christian faith, asserted that all people were made in the 'image of God'. This conferred on all people both rights and responsibilities. These Christian truths came to inform the western world and be foundational for its growth and success.

Yes, sadly, greed, injustice and oppression accompanied the good. As is well known, for about 400 years the western powers re introduced the practice of slavery, before Christian pressure ultimately led to its abolition once again.

In contrast with Christian teaching and practice, Islam does not assert that all people are made in God's image, or that all people have human rights. Mohammad had slaves, and the Islamic world took slaves from Africa for 1400 years, before western pressure brought their slavery practice to an end. Mauritania only criminalized slavery in 1981, but even now reports continue to surface of ongoing slavery in parts of the Islamic world. Islamic countries do not permit freedom of religion, or freedom of expression. Islam preferences male wants, has only hatred for LGBT, and looks upon non-Muslims as inferior and as people to be ultimately (violently) subjugated by Muslims. Islamic countries without oil do not thrive economically (or socially). This is not because of 'Western oppression', but is due to its inherent ungodliness and evil. Many Muslims seek to immigrate to the West because they seek the economic and social opportunities the West has to offer (which their Islamic run countries don't and can't offer).

The woke narrative portrays Muslim Palestinians as victims of 'white' Jewish colonialism, and cries out: 'From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free'. This woke narrative is utterly blind to the fact that:

- Israel was the homeland of the Jews long before any 'Palestinians' lived there.
- Palestinian leadership has, over decades, rejected Jewish offers of a two state solution.
- Hamas has never had any intent to build a nation, only destroy Israel. Their attack on the 7th October 2023 was done with the intent of bring death on their own people, with the hope of bringing negative world attention on Israel. In this they succeeded due to the proliferation of 'useful idiots' in the West.

Unless the West wakes up and grows up, Islam will only continue to threaten the western world. This does not mean bringing in 'right wing extremism' as that is just another example of one evil being replaced by another. The solution to the problem lies in people returning to God, and utilizing his goodness and his wisdom. Given human sinfulness thriving human society will only ever be imperfectly realized in this broken world. There is no 'utopia' this side of eternity, but something better than the ailing West is nevertheless possible.

The Weak Woke West & its alliance with Islam
